

Phone and/or online Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing, and Alcohol and Other Drug services and support available for Kimberley community members
Organisation name	Key contact	Contact	Phone support	Online support	Comments
AnglicareWA	Service Support Officer	broomer@anglicarewa.org.au 9194 2400	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	Providing phone and video support for family violence, parenting support, sexual abuse counselling, general counselling (wellbeing and mental health), family separation, relationship counselling, employee assistance.
		derby@anglicarewa.org.au 9191 0100	<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Providing phone and video support for family violence, parenting support, child sexual abuse counselling.
		kununurra@anglicarewa.org.au 9166 5000			Providing phone and video support for family violence, parenting support, sexual abuse counselling, Family separation, relationship counselling, suicide prevention, employee assistance.
Boab Health Services – Mental Health	Cath Kavanagh	cath.kavanagh@boabhealth.com.au ; 9192 7888 / 0437 345 824	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	All mental health counselling services are being provided via phone or videoconferencing platforms (Zoom, MS Teams, Scopia or other as requested by clients). Referral processes remain the same. Capacity for direct referral through to PORTS for telephone or online support remains in place. Use of online MH support modules being utilised with and recommended to clients.
			<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Further information and updates are available on our website www.boabhealth.com.au . COVID-19 specific updates are available under "Latest News". Services and community can also subscribe to our newsletter mailing list to receive these updates regularly.
Centacare Kimberley	Admin/Reception – Who will direct to required staff or service areas	admin@centacarekimberley.org.au 08 9192 2293	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	Centacare is a first point of contact service provider. Services include: Homeless Support; Breakfast Program; Family Support; Transitional Housing; Emergency Relief; Mental Health Housing Support; Move To Town; Reintegration (Pre/Post Prisoner Support)
	Dee Receptionist		<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Please see brochure attached to this transition for further explanation of services
	Brother Peter – ER Officer		Centacare takes a strengths based approach to empower people to live a positive and independent lifestyle. Centacare's motto - 'Working Together to Create life Choices'. During the COVID19 period our organisation maintains all of our services under the social distancing and safe work practices. Our office is still accessible for clients.
Cyrenian House	Sally Malone	smalone@cyrenianhouse.com	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	Our phone number 9192 6400. Managers mobile 0419256090. We can do intake and assessment over the phone, write support/advocacy letters for our clients (housing, Centrelink etc), refer people to other services, offer confidential debriefing or consultation for staff of services who are working with people affected by alcohol or other drugs (or lack thereof). We can also supply information about how to access other helping services.
Cyrenian House Milliia Rumurra (CHMR)			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs
headspace Broome	David Mascal (Centre Manager)	Email: headspace@kamsc.org.au PH: 0488576832	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing	While headspace Broome remains an open service, we are working towards as much telehealth as possible and very limited appointments at the clinic that are negotiated on a case by case basis (no walk ins available at this time).
Services for 12 – 25 year old young people in Broome. • GP • Mental Health • AOD • Vocational Support • SEWB			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Service is also running regular social media messaging / activities and campaigns – see their face book page for more info. Flu Vaccines are also available for young people who are patients of this service. Call the centre to book this in.
KAMS remote clinics	Beagle Bay Bidyadanga Kutjunka				KAMS remote clinics remains open – with increasing telehealth options available.

KAMS Social and Emotional Wellbeing; and Kimberley Aboriginal Suicide Prevention Trial teams	SEWB Lenard Ansey Administration Officer KASPT Vicki McKenna – KASPT Coordinator	SEWB Email: sewbadmin@kamsc.org.au KASPT Email: spcoordinator@kamsc.org.au	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	KAMS SEWB workforce support team and Kimberley Aboriginal Suicide Prevention Trial workers are all working from home across the Kimberley. They are providing “check in” phone calls or VC contacts with: • AMS members SEWB workforce • Partner organisation SEWB staff • KAMS remote clinics • Individuals identified through program work Continuing work within the Kimberley Postvention Service with partner agencies including limited outreach response with physical distancing in place.
Kimberley Mental Health and Drug Service, WA Country Health Service	TRIAGE OFFICER: JASON KIDD KCADS: Drug & alcohol CAMHS: Child and youth mental health	Email for referrals: Kmhdsclinic.reception@health.wa.gov.au For medication and management advice: KMHDSdutydoctor@health.wa.gov.au 91942317 91929700	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Video assessments available with Zoom and Scopia
Kimberley Postvention Service	Aimee Howard – East Kimberley Vacant – West Kimberley	0488 910 012	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	ZOOM video support
Mens Outreach Service AC	Peter Mitchell	peter@mensoutreach.org.au	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Mens Health and Wellbeing team staff are available by phone on 9192 2767. Change Em Ways FDV team are available by phone on 9192 1414 or 0418 665 094 ALIVE and Kicking Goals! suicide prevention peer educator/mentors available by phone 9194 9030 or 0400 352 198 ALIVE and Kicking Goals! peer educator/mentors available by phone 9194 9030 or 0400 352 198 Mens Health and Wellbeing team workers are available by phone on 9192 2767.
Waringarri Aboriginal Corporation	Beth Rutter	coordinator@kwac.com.au	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Our SEWB worker can offer phone counselling, and we are setting up a lap top so she can also access online. Our Sober Up Shelter is still operational and can offer a safe place to sleep as well as referrals to relevant support services. We can also help with food and fuel support for those living remotely on their home communities. An email or phone call to myself in the first instance and then I will refer to the appropriate staff member.
Wyndham Youth Aboriginal Corporation (WYAC)	Luisa Rokoduru: Projects Coordinator	Projectscoordinator@wyac.org.au	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental Health / Social and Emotional Wellbeing <input type="checkbox"/> Alcohol and Other Drugs	Wellbeing checks are being undertaken on weekly basis by phone for any youth (6- 25 years), in Wyndham. Case Management clients (12- 18 years) remain at 20 with sessions done face to face (sparingly), by phone and online. Client plans are based on involvement and input by parent/guardian, where appropriate. Online educational programming for clients and for all youth.