Other Opportunities

Statutory Review of the Mental Health Act (2014)

The Mental Health Commission is undertaking a Statutory Review of the Mental Health Act (2014) to examine the operations and effectiveness of the Act – what is working well and where improvements to treatment, care and support could be made.

We want to hear from people who:

- Have received treatment under the Act;
- Have supported someone who received treatment under the Act;
- Work in the mental health sector, including as an advocate or volunteer;
- Have feedback about the operation and effectiveness of the Act. Tell us what is working well with the Act or where things could be improved, Have your say.
