SEWB WSDU Team Update

In the Mouth of July KAMS celebrated NAIDOC Week this year's theme is

The SEWB Team took part in community events around the community.

SEWB Stall at the BSHS

Damon, our SEWB West Kimberley Liaison Officer organise a Tie-Dye station at Broome Senior High School, Students to home custom Die-Dye socks and other goodies

Garnduwa 3 on 3 Corporate Cup

Garnduwa one of KAMS member services ran a NAIDOC Corporate Cup, 3 v 3 basketball competition to support networking around services.

"The event will be focused on encouraging Kullarri based organisations who work in the Indigenous space to submit teams and participate. In line with the 2022 NAIDOC theme Get Up! Stand Up! Show Up! – our event will reinforce collaboration within Community. The concept of the idea proposed by Garnduwa is to provide an opportunity for participants to have some fun with their fellow work colleagues and also take the opportunity to network with other like-minded people working in the Indigenous space. "

KAMS SEWB Team attended NAIDOC Awards

The KAMS SEWB Team attended the 2022 Goolarri Media NAIDOC awards. This was a grate night as the KAMS's CEO took home one of the awards.

Other Opportunities

Headspace Graduate Opportunities – Open Now

About the headspace graduate program

headspace is a place like no other. It's a place where people listen and support one another, working collaboratively to help build brighter futures. If you're looking for a graduate role where you can hit the ground running, where you'll gain unique experience and where you'll continue to develop your skills with professional training – you'll find your place at headspace.

This exciting program is designed to offer graduates access to a two-year comprehensive youth mental health training and development program. The program includes discipline-specific clinical supervision as well as 40 days of funded professional training and the opportunity to complete placements at two headspace centres to diversify your learning experience. . Furthermore, successful candidates will have exclusive access to:

- Extensive experience working within the internationally-renowned headspace model for youth mental health
- Training and supervision to support professional development
- Diversity of experience through two 12-month placements with at least one in a regional, rural or remote setting
- Exciting opportunities to live and work across the country (see FAQs below for locations)
- Long-term career opportunities in youth mental health

Collectively lead IAHA into the future influencing change across the allied health sector and services.

Hey you mob,
Indigenous Allied Health Australia is a national, member-based Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander allied health organisation. IAHA leads sector workforce development and support, to improve the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Good news is that they provide free memberships. By becoming a member of IAHA, you can work with us to support and grow a culturally safe and responsive health system that values the contribution of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander allied health workforce and our communities.

For more information visit the conference website or contact the Events Team on 08 6389 4500 or ahc@ruralhealthwest.com.au

Upcoming Training

Men's Out Reach Service "Change Em Ways" Program

Men's Out Reach will be running an 8-week, 3 day a week block 'Change em Way' program.

This program targets Men's Behaviour Change and has been developed within a culturally secure, trauma informed framework for Indigenous men who have been involved in and wish to cease using family and domestic violence.

The program is premised on a number of core values:

- Safety, Accountability and Responsibility
- Respect for Country, Culture and Family
- Strength-based Trauma-informed Healing
- Support for Women and Children

To check out all future training and events please visit the SEWB Training & Events Calendar.
